Hosea 6

1 Come, let us return to the Lord.
He has torn us, but he will heal us;
he has struck down, but he will bind up 2 Two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will raise us up,
that we may live in his presence.
3 Let us acknowledge him,
let us press on to know the Lord.
His appearance is as sure as the morning sun;
he will come to us like the rain,
like the spring rain watering the earth.
4 What shall I do with you, Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, Judah?
Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the early morning dew that goes away.
5 Therefore I have cut you down with my prophets,
I have slain you with the words of my mouth, and my judgments flash like the light 6 For I desire faithfulness, not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
7 But like Adam they have broken the covenant 8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tainted with blood.
9 As robbers wait for a victim,
so a band of priests murder on the road to Shechem, 10 I have seen something horrible in the house of Israel.
There Ephraim is defiled 11 Also for you, Judah, a harvest is appointed 12 Ephraim is like a moth 13 When Ephraim saw his illness, and Judah saw his sores, 14 I will be like a lion to Ephraim, 15 Then I will return to my place
Hosea 7

1 Whenever I would heal Israel, the sin of Ephraim is revealed and the wickedness of Samaria is exposed.
2 They do not consider that I remember all their evil.
Their sins surround them,
3 They delight the king with their evil,
4 They are all adulterers,
5 On our king's day
6 Their hearts are like an oven
7 All of them are as hot as an oven
8 Ephraim mixes himself
9 Foreigners have taken his strength
10 Israel's arrogance testifies against him 11 Ephraim is like a dove 12 As they go, I will spread my net over them 13 Woe to them, because they have left me!
14 They do not call to me from their hearts 15 I trained them and gave them strength, 16 They do not turn to the Most High
