

The spirit of impartiality abides only in congruent states, and with such, there are no wars nor striving between peoples.

Each one does what they are gifted to do for the Collective versus for their individual gains.

To have the spirit of impartiality is the highest level of Thought which leads one into all gates of the most high.